Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Your Retirement

1. We find from our records that you will be completing 60 years of age on 31.12.2005 and retiring from the services of the Corporation at the close of office hours on 31.12.2005.

3. On retirement, you will be entitled to receive the payment on the following accounts:-

- i) Provident Fund Contributions as per rules and/or Pension as per rules of Life Insurance Corporation of India.
  - ii) Gratuity according to relevant rules and
  - iii) Benefits under the Group Insurance Scheme - if due and payable.
  - iv) Benefits under Free Insurance Scheme - if any, due & Payable
  - v) Cash payment in lieu of unutilised P.L., if any, due & payable, as per rules.
- It shall be our endeavour to make payments to you as soon as possible after the date of your retirement.

4. Your attention is drawn to our Circular Ref: ZD/727/ASP/90 dtd. 10.10.90 whereby you can avail of the facility of encashment of unavailed P.L. to your credit on the date of retirement upto a maximum of 240 days. Despite this facility you may, if you so desire, avail of all part of the P.L. due to you at one stretch as leave preparatory to retirement.

5. You may also, if you so desire, propose to avail of the encashment facility only in respect of a part of your privilege leave in which event, the balance of privilege leave, to your credit, may be availed of by you, at one stretch, as leave preparatory to retirement. We may bring to your notice that, as per the rules, no leave can be granted beyond the date of retirement.

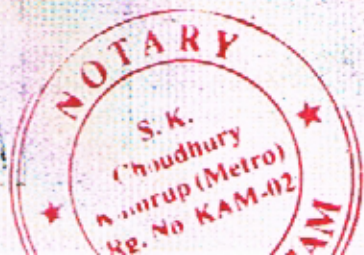

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter and let us know whether you propose to proceed on leave preparatory to retirement and if so, the date from which you propose to so proceed.

Yours faithfully,

SD/-
